“ Our condolences. Dakota 'lived large', made people smile, was creative, intelligent, and told good stories! It was a pleasure to get to know him through his many skills. We are so sorry he was taken from his family at such a young age. Hopefully, he is livening things up in Heaven. We are so glad we were privileged to know him.

“ I was so sorry to read of the tragic loss of your young son. We may wonder why this tragedy had to happen? [Jesus well knew the Bible statement: " because time and unexpected events overtake them".. Ecclesiastes 9:11]. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen. The Bible teaches us about the wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29. Revelation 21:3,4 states that in the future ' death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away.' Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to undo the tragedies that touch our lives today and we will be able to welcome back onto the paradise earth, our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. “ He was my best friend, hunting buddy, my rock at times in my life, it was just me and him for a lot of years. We leaned on each other, comforted each other, we fought with and for each other. No one can ever take his place in my life. I taught him the things I knew, then he added to them and taught them back to me. I can't imagine this life without him, that smile, that laugh, that cry, that pout, his voice, his personality, his stubbornness, his twisted thinking, his love, his caring, his compassion, his companionship--- I miss it already

“ My family has a lot of memories of Dakota (aka Ducky), but one memory stands out of him playing with the younger kids on the playground in Weed New Mexico. He thought he would show them how to run up the slide, and he broke his arm. So he show them what happens when you use the slide in the wrong manner.
