“ My Son. Years have come and gone with your passing and my heart still misses you very much. They say that time heals all wounds, I'm afraid that the wound and emptiness of the space you had in my heart is still very much bleeds as fresh today as it did back when you passed. I remember and cherish the day when you and your twin was born and I held you both. Ray my son, Jay and I miss that balance you gave us. Love. Dad.
