

Raymond R. Copeland

October 16, 1979 - December 23, 2016

Raymond Roy Copeland passed away December 23, 2016. He was born October 16, 1979 to Jimmy C and Terry K Copeland of Hagerman, NM. Living most of his life in Hagerman, NM, Raymond was a very hard worker. He was a very caring father and a very good friend. Usually a quiet guy, when he did have an opinion, it was a strong one. Everyone would know his opinion because he made sure he had his say. Raymond loved a good joke and could fix most anything. He was a very good mechanic and loved to “mechanic” with his father, Jimmy. German chocolate cake was by far his favorite dessert. Those left to cherish Raymond’s memories and his wife, Sara M Copeland; son, Christopher J Copeland of Hagerman, NM; daughter Phoenna K Copeland of Hagerman, NM; parents, Jimmy C Copeland and Terry K Copeland of Hagerman, NM; sister, Gale Poland and husband, Dave of Conchas, NM; and brother, Curtis (Toby) Copeland and wife, Jessie of Hagerman, NM. Also, surviving Raymond are numerous nephews, nieces and cousins along with great-nieces and nephews.

Raymond is preceded in death by his grandparents: Ira G Copeland and Ethlene Copeland, and Curtis Harrison and Gail Harrison-Norrell.

Services will be held at Hagerman Cemetery Friday December 30th at 2:00 pm.

“ My best and sincere wishes to Raymond's family. I am so sorry that Raymond did not see an escape for his problems. He was very capable and I know everyone wishes they could have changed what he thought was his only answer. My love and best wishes to all family members. RIP Raymond. You will be missed. My love to all.
