Raymond was born to Abelardo Franco and Emma Moreno Franco on March 29, 1949, in Roswell, NM. Before retirement, Raymond worked in the upholstery and automotive industry. He married the love of his life, Stella Avitia on April 7, 1967, in Pecos TX. Raymond's hobbies were anything that included his grandchildren; he loved them more than life itself.

"Dear grandfather,

Or shall I say dad. How you always made me so glad, I think about everything you have done, and oh how much it was so fun, you always said I could write and just to always put up a good fight, your words to me always meant so much, even though there was never enough, I promise to do right even though I might feel lost in this life, I'm writing this to just make the light, the darkness of having you gone makes me feel so wrong but I know your far away, away from all the pain, I love you deeply and want you to know you mean the world to me, please Wempe know that you can go and we will be fine, I love you grandpa with all my might."

Dad

A dad is a person who's loving and kind,
and often he knows what you have on your mind.
He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends --
A dad can be one of your very best friends.
He's proud of your triumphs, but when things go wrong,
A dad can be patient and helpful and strong.
In all that you do, a dad's love plays a part--
There's always a place for him deep in your heart--
And each year that passes you're even more glad,
More grateful and proud just to call him your dad.

This tribute was written in honor of Raymond by his family.
