

Raymond Lewis Smith

May 23, 1960 - August 8, 2020

RAYMOND LEWIS SMITH, 60, passed away on Saturday, August 8, 2020, in Roswell, New Mexico. Please take a moment and share a fond memory or thoughtful expression of sympathy for Raymond's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

SERVICES: A Graveside Service will be held at South Park Cemetery on Thursday, August 20, 2020, at 10:00 AM.

On May 23, 1960, Raymond was born to Melvin and Mary Morgan in Shamrock, Texas. After graduating from Roswell High School, he decided to continue his education and later received a Business Degree. Raymond was a dedicated employee who worked for many years at Wal-Mart. He was athletic in his younger years and enjoyed boxing, fighting Kung-Fu, and volunteering for the Old Boys Club. Raymond was a sports lover who enjoyed going to the Hike It and Spike It and Gus Macker events. He loved to ride his bike and watch movies with his nieces and nephews. Raymond's loved ones will always have a special place in their heart that will live on forever.

SURVIVORS: Those left to treasure and cherish memories of Raymond are his sisters: Wanda Smith, Mary Morgan, and Annie Morgan; as well as nine nephews and five nieces.

PRECEDED: Raymond is preceded in death by his mother, Mary Morgan; brothers: Robert Smith and Richard Morgan; and his sister, Melva Smith.

Raymond's family would like to give a special "Thank You" to all their friends of Roswell, New Mexico, for their kindness and support.

“ Aww, what a sweet soul. Patient and do willing to help you/anyone without any hesitation. Still can't believe walking into Walmart and not running into Raymond. I believe there was not one person who shopped at Walmart and not know a gentlemen as kind like Raymond. ❤️

“ My condolences to Raymond's family. I worked with Raymond at Wal-Mart from the day the store started hiring in 1984 to 1994. He was such a kind person. He was respectful, hard working, and always willing to help. Never complained about the physical work needed to be done at the store. I always looked forward to saying hello to him when I would go shopping there. Always remembered my name. I'm sure he remembered all the old timers that opened up the store. Truly the example of a Christian man. Your smile will be missed.

Dear Raymond in Heaven, Although I did not know you well, I knew how kind you were. Every time I'd see you at Wal-Mart you were always dedicated to your job and to the customers, working diligently, always soft spoken to them. You were always kind and helpful to me. I'd see you riding back and forth to work all the time no matter the weather! Knowing how kind and sincere you were I know that now you are in The Lord Christ Jesus arms and resting in His Heavenly Peace. You earned His Promise of Eternity and everlasting Life with Him. My deepest sympathy to the Smith Family, Im sorry for your loss. Rest in Peace Raymond friend to all. Amen
