“ You were one of the funniest, outspoken and creative person i got to work with. You would sign up for karaoke and rock it! I will never ever forget you got up to sing Black Velvet and your table was like OMG thats our waitress! You blew the crowd away with that voice! You always had your red lipstick on. I remember you almost running me over to get some Jeffree star when it came in lol I think my favorite memory is us going up to the dining area and doing are 2 shots each to get on with the rest of night. 2 Tequila for you, 2 Watermelon for me. It was our ritual every weekend. Im sorry our friendship was short lived. But i know how happy you must be with all the angels. RIP pretty lady

“ Oh how I miss you beautiful baby girl. Wish you were still here wish I could touch your face, wish I could hear you sitting in your room in the middle of the night singing even though I have to work early in the morning. On that Easter morning when you were born I was so happy you were the light of mine and your dad's life, you were perfect. As you began to grow you were always smiling, such a happy baby and that carried on until you were unexpectedly taken from us. Today we are left without you and all the beauty you possessed. We are left only with all your memories and an empty void in our hearts. You had so much love for your family and never failed to show that love. You loved singing, your tattoos, and partying with all your family whenever there was a get together. You were never shy but always outgoing. You never feared speaking your mind and always did your best to protect your family. You were our princess our little girl the love of our lives. How can I live without you. I did not realize til you were gone how you were the light in so many people's eyes. You had so many friends and you were truly loved by each and everyone of them. I keep asking myself why were you taken from me when things were going so well. I probably will never truly know that answer and will live the rest of my life with the pain of a broken heart. I know your happy up there with grandma Eva grandma Mary grandpa Chuck your grandpa belito uncle Charlie your cousin Dan and Jason. I miss you so much I truly don't know how I can ever live without you. Alex loved his momma and is so heart broken, Daniel Ray still loved you and sat with your baby boy comforted and cried with him. You were Emilio's hero and he always felt he could talk to you about anything, you were his big sister there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for you. He said "we were suppose to move to California in September", he was looking forward to you moving with him to the place he loves. Your sister Katrina loved going out and singing with you she has cried continually because you were taken from her. You two may have fought but you always loved each other and protected each other. You worried about your sister all the time because you loved her so much. Since your gone there have been so many sleepless nights and when I cry there are no tears left I have cried so much. I just want you back, I want this nightmare to end and when I wake up I want to see you standing over me with that beautiful smile. Oh how I love and miss you. Again how can I ever live without you.

“ Becky,

I remember that Easter Morning you were born. Your mom was supposed to make us her famous potato salad for the first time. My Grandma was so in love with you. You were the first baby I had ever really been around. I was the baby until you came. It was so fun. When you and your mom came home from Japan it seems like I was with you guys and my sister and Grandma the whole summer. You were getting potty trained and I wanted to make sure you didn't have accidents so I took you every 5 minutes. You had it down in no time. You were always kind of a brat though. I have a scar on my face where you threw a temper tantrum and scratched me....left me scared for life. Then I got older and and I "babysat". I had a boy over and your dad showed up and you were back there where he was hiding poking him and things. Remember when you puked horribly bad? I cleaned that puke and I NEVER clean puke. You were still a brat though you made me mad and I slapped you and I was scared you would tell and I would get in trouble so I taught you to drive. I always tried to be there I always wanted you to be happy and feel like you were the best you. I hated when you didn't feel like you were the best. Sometimes tough love isn't the right choice. But remember always that I love you. Tell my baby how much I miss him. Tell Grandma I am sorry he's a smart ass and I'm sorry both of you will gang up on her now. Hug my grandpa! Be happy. You and Dan be happy!
