Rene was a laborer and had many trades in his life. He definitely was a “Jack of All Trades, but a Master of None,” LOL! His greatest legacy is his generous heart. He touched many hearts throughout his time here on earth and will continue to do so. He definitely loved to help people in need and expected nothing in return. He showed his children to love, respect, to be trustworthy and forgiving. He was a very humble man taking in whom ever needed a home and something to eat. He always loved keeping his cars looking nice. His one great talent was playing his guitar and singing, never needing lessons to pick up a tune, whether it was the words that went with the song, but also filling in his own feelings towards that tune. He was truly a character quick to come up with something to make you laugh about. Oh that “Pancho,” how he will be greatly missed.

To our little sister, Grace, and brother Rene Jr., our most gracious thanks for always being there by his side and providing the care he needed, especially this past year. We know it was not easy, but you were there with loving care and compassion. Grace was definitely his GUARDIAN ANGEL, when he called out she was there. A very special thanks to Antonia Gandarilla for the wonderful care she provided throughout the years. Also a special thanks to Gentiva Hospice (Anita and Katrina) for their upmost compassionate care they provided to our father and to us, guiding us through this most difficult time. Now as we lay him to rest we know that our GREAT GUARDIAN ANGEL we call DAD will be watching over us all.
