A tribute of Richard's life may be found at www.andersonbethany.com where you may leave memories and expressions of sympathy for his family.

Carpentry work was Richard's primary profession, but he was a very good impersonator and enjoyed every minute of it. He is admired by many for his ability to brighten the lives of others, in spite of what he might be going through personally. Playing the Harmonica and listening to War/Lee Oskar, was very inspiring and entertaining to him. Drawing, golfing and drinking his Budweiser, as he watched his favorite team, the Pittsburgh Steelers, were some of the things Richard looked forward to. His greatest pride and passion were his children and family; he loved them more than life itself. Among other things, Richard enjoyed being around family and friends. A great son, brother and father, he will be greatly missed by his family and all who knew him.

Surviving to cherish Richard's memory are his parents: Richard Brady II and Elizabeth Marie Nunez Brady, both of Roswell, NM; sons: Richard Brady IV and Isaac Brady both of Lubbock, TX; daughters: Alyssa Xavier Ramos of

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now; I'm free,
I am following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full; I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one touched.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now; He set me free.

“ *For you primo. We had such great times and memories growing up you'll always be in my mind and heart.
My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news
It never occurred to me, how much I could lose
I find myself wishing that it wasn't real
Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel Tears fall from my eyes, I can barely see
But my heart tells me that he'll always be with me
I'm glad he feels no pain now-he lives in a perfect land
I can still feel the soft touch on my shoulder of his loving hand
I lie in bed and cry at night
And I don't feel any better in the morning light
And I will love and miss him forever
Until the day we are again together.
Together in that perfect place above,
Filled with caring, sharing and love
But until that day comes- I will wipe my tears away.
And hopefully see him again someday.*
