

Richard Calvert

January 21, 1936 - September 26, 2006

Memorial services for Richard "Dick" Calvert, 70, of Roswell will be held at Central Church of the Nazarene Saturday, September 30, 2006, at 1:00 p.m. with Pastor Randy Elftman officiating. Military honors will be provided by the Roswell Veteran's Honor Guard. Dick passed away Tuesday, September 26, 2006, at his home surrounded by the love of his family.

Dick was born on January 21, 1936 to Chester V. Calvert and Nora Ellen Ricker in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He and Jerrie D. Bailey were married on May 5, 1962 in Las Vegas, Nevada; Jerrie survives him at the family home. Richard moved to Roswell in 1987 and was a member of Central Church of the Nazarene. He loved to sing at church and at Sunset Villa and share his love of Jesus with everyone he came into contact with. Dick was custodian at Central Church of the Nazarene for ten years and owned Dick's Janitorial Service.

In addition to his wife, Jerrie, Dick is survived by his children, Rick, Richard B., and Sue Calvert, all of Roswell; five grandchildren, Toni Mendoza, Richard Justin Calvert, Clarence Sentell Jr., Matthew Sentell, and Charity Calvert; four great-grandchildren, Felliipe, Carlos, Juan, and Suzanna Mendoza; a host of friends and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Dick was preceded in death by two daughters, Mary Calvert and Shirley Foster, his grandson, David Calvert, two brothers, and two sisters.

“ Dear Jerrie, My prayers are with you and and all your family. My memories of Dick and I at FCC are good and rich. I recall vividly hearing the music of a record and Dick singing as he cleaned. I would sometimes join him. He was a loving wonderful man.
