He will also be missed by his many friends. Preceding Richard in death are his parents, Amable Lucero and Librada “Mary Sigala Lucero; Frank Jeffery, his dear friend ; uncle, Philaberto Sigala, Sr., nephew, Frank Lucero, Jr., and cousins, Frank Valencia and Rita Sigala Gomez.

Serving as pallbearers will be his grandkids, Raymond, Isable, Christopher, and Carmen. Honorary pallbearers will be Bobby Franco, Fermin Archuleta, Frank Lucero, Sonny Sigala, Michael Lucero, Mike Chaves, Matthew Sisneros, Cruz Rodriguez, Phil Sigala , and Bert Sigala.

Any contributions are welcomed and greatly appreciated and will be accepted at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home.

God Saw He Was Getting Tired

God saw he was getting tired And a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around him And whispered, "Come with Me. " With tearful eyes we watched him suffer And saw him fade away. Although we loved him dearly, We could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best. - Author Unknown

“ My favorite memory of Rick was back in the summer of 1971. I had a 63 Ford Fairlane and was parked in front of my sister's house on South Elm. Rick lived on the corner of Elm and Chisum and he came over to the house. He said " man Tito you gotta listen to this tape of Neil Young After the Gold Rush" We listened to that tape and laughed all night long till 4am. My condolences go out to his family.
