“ Richard lived such an incredible life. I loved listening to his work stories, his world travels and all the amazing contributions he made in this life. I know he was more than ready to leave this life, I met him when he was just a young lad at the age of 98 and he was still driving and running errands. I'm glad he's no longer in physical pain but I'm sad to have missed his last year as we moved out of Roswell in 2020. Goodbye Richard.
