

Ricky Linares

January 3, 1957 - February 1, 2026

Ricky Linares was born on January 3, 1957, in Roswell, New Mexico, and passed away on February 1, 2026, in Las Cruces, New Mexico. He worked as a carpenter and was known for his dedication to his craft and his family. Ricky was a loving father, brother, grandfather, and uncle to numerous nieces and nephews. He was a devoted fan of the Dallas Cowboys and especially enjoyed sitting in the sun each day, a simple routine that brought him peace and comfort. He also loved to joke and was known for calling everyone “George,” even if he knew their name—a habit that always brought smiles and laughter.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Margie C. Linares; his father, Felipe N. Linares; and his brother, Anthony Linares.

Ricky is survived by his five children: Ricky Linares Jr., Mark Adam Kline, Chris Kline, Cynthia Linares-Johnson and Carmen Medina; his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren; his sister Nancy Herrera and her husband Alvino; Louisa Linares; and Esther Linares and her partner Mike Serna.

Funeral services have been scheduled for Monday, February 9, 2026, at 9:30 AM, at St. John’s Catholic Church with burial to follow at South Park Cemetery.
