

Rita Carabajal

November 4, 1969 - January 7, 2025

Rita Vargas-Carabajal, 55, passed away on Tuesday, January 7, 2025, in Roswell, New Mexico. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Rita's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

Rita Vargas-Carabajal passed away peacefully at her home with her husband Danny and mother by her side on January 7, 2025, at the age of 55, leaving a void her family cannot fill. There will be a memorial service at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home, on Tuesday January 14, 2025, at 9:00 am.

On November 4, 1969, Rita was born to Roy Vargas Sr and Nellie Vargas in Roswell, New Mexico. Rita attended University High School and studied at ENMU-Roswell to be a medical assistant. Rita went on to work at Los Ninos Pediatrics, where she enjoyed working with children. Rita married Danny Carbajal on February 19, 2011, at Baca Campsite, where they were surrounded by their family and friends. She was a dedicated and loving wife to Danny and a devoted mother to her children, Pete, Dominique, and Angelique.

In Rita's free time, she enjoyed spending time with her granddaughters Alexia, Alyanna, and Leilani, teaching them how to make tortillas and learning how to dance. She loved going to the casino and the outdoors, hunting with her family, and listening and dancing to Spanish music while enjoying life to the fullest. Rita was an avid fan of the Dallas Cowboys. Rita loved her brother and sister with all her heart. Her brother Ralph was her partner in crime, and they enjoyed spending time together. She especially loved talking to her sister Renee on the phone; they would laugh, sometimes cry, and gossip about life. She enjoyed talking to her mom daily and always gave her a hard time. She loved spending time and talking with her bonus nieces, nephews, and cousins who loved and always called her Aunt Rita.

Those left to treasure and cherish memories of Rita eternally are her husband of 14 years, Danny Carabajal, at their family home; mother, Nellie Vargas; Son Pedro Anthony Carrasco III and wife Jessenia; twin daughters, Dominique and Angelique Carrasco; three granddaughters Alexia and Alyanna Carrasco, and Leilani Trujillo; brother Ralph Vargas and wife Nicole; sister Renee Trujillo and husband Eric; nephews Roy Vargas III, Larry Vargas, Frankie Archuleta, George Valenzula, Ralphe Noel Vargas, Michael and Gabriel Trujillo; nieces Tierra Vargas and Britany Trujillo; and numerous great-nieces and nephews.

Rita was preceded in death by her father Roy Vargas Sr, brothers Roy Vargas Jr and Alfred Montoya, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Rita's family sincerely wishes to thank the Progressive Care Unit at The Hospital of Providence East Campus in El Paso, Texas, Gentiva Hospice, and Reverend Enrique Trujillo.

“ I met Rita at the pediatrician's office when I was assigned my rotation there for school. She quickly took me under her wing and set me up for success. She treated me like a daughter and invited me to her home. I was all alone in Roswell and she took me to Ruidoso and showed me the sights. I spent a lot of time with her. I will never forget my time with her. I always called her momma Rita and we kept in touch over the years. I'm sad I won't get to see her again, but she was always cheering me on. Love you so much momma Rita. Until we meet again ❤️

“ My Prima Rita words cannot express how I feel right now you were like a big sister to me since I was little, but you took me when I needed someone the most when I lost my parents. We talked all the time didn't matter what day or night we would laugh cry and listen to music and talk crap to Danny. I'm gonna miss that so much. We got snow the last couple of days and I cried just standing outside letting it hit my face because every time it snowed we would FaceTime each other. I'm gonna miss you so much. I love you until we meet again ..give my mom and dad a big hug for me.💔
