“ I love you and miss you son . I still can't believe you are gone. I want you to know I am still very proud of you . You always held a job and were such an amazing and happy outgoing person. You were my first born handsome young man and I there's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you . My mind and heart are torn to pieces. I never stop loving you or thinking of you . Your our angel in heaven now I can't wait for the day I see you again . Until then fly high son ☐ Love always your Momma

“ Last time we saw you was at Papaws funeral.. That was way too long. We missed seeing you grow up n getting to connect with you. You look like your Dad but you look alot like your Grandpa Robbie.. I know you never got to meet him but you are getting to know him now in Heaven. We all love you so much n pray your soul is in peace. Love from your Grandpa Robbies family.

“ Robbie was a great friend and a straight gangster in the truest sense—confident, loyal, and always himself. He worked hard, loved to spit bars, and loved spending time fishing with the people he cared about. He never held grudges and always made sure the people around him were okay. I knew him from the time he was about 15 years old, and over the years I watched him grow while never losing what made him Robbie. Last summer he got me back into fishing, and those are memories I'll carry with me for the rest of my life. He was the kind of person who left an impression wherever he went and will never be forgotten by those who knew him.

“Robbie was one of the kindest people. He was so outgoing and smart. He loved going on trips with me, and I loved taking him. Every Friday was a new adventure for us, and it was always the best. He was so full of life, always making jokes and laughing. He loved music and expressing himself through it. The world feels quieter now that you’re gone. You were mine and JJ’s first best friend, our forever friend. You were a beautiful person, and it hurts writing about it when I should be able to tell you that you’re loved forever and you’ll be missed forever. I hope you’re up there making Grandpa laugh ❤️
