Do Not Weep Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there; I do not sleep, I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die.

“ We spent the afternoon yesterday remembering your smile, remembering you as a dad. I smiled when I saw the collage of pictures - especially the one that captured you, my Dad and Mando. Goodness, that was so long ago and yet I remember the laughter of each of you so well. You will be missed, Chuck, but you will live on, I saw that in the eyes of your children yesterday.

“ Robert, "Chuck" as I knew him, always had a beautiful smile that seemed to communicate more than words. His friendship and support for my son will forever be appreciated. I send special prayer's and loving thoughts to my nephew Robert and little nieces, Synthia and Amanda. To Josie, a special appreciation for her ability to demonstrate compassion and a loving spirit for Chuck. May God keep Chuck in his loving presence, and peace to his family. Vaya con Dios Chuck. “ I remember good times with Chuck and the many times he made me laugh. One fond memory is of him staying at my house on one of his trips to California. I can still see his little dogs running around playfully.

He was a good man who will be dearly missed by family and friends. He is in God's hands now. My deepest condolences to his family, may he forever live on in the hearts of his children.
