On May 13, 1949, Robert was born to Antonio and Frances Herrera in Roswell, NM. He was an identical twin to Albert Herrera, who preceded him in death. Robert was the beloved companion of Yolanda Rivera for twenty-eight wonderful years; they were always inseparable. He enjoyed playing cards, and bingo: Robert always said at bingo "close the door or the goats are going to get out." Robert also enjoyed hunting, fishing, and, especially, the casinos. Most of all, he loved spending time with his family and friends. Going fishing with Joe Ray, Jeremy, and Israel was one of his favorite things. When fishing Robert would say, "Don't eat my damn corn or cheese, it's for the fish!"

Robert was always a great cook who enjoyed cooking for everyone. He was always up early, ready to start the day. Robert loved being at the Ranchito.

Always a jokester, Robert loved pulling pranks. He had always taken in everyone as his own and made everyone feel welcome. His door was always open with a warm home-cooked meal. He has taught everyone the meaning of family; he encouraged them always to be strong and fear nothing.

Always ready to go for a ride, Robert is now cruising his way into heaven.
