

Robert Ketner

September 9, 1932 - October 19, 2007

Robert Junior Ketner, 75, is remembered with great love and affection by a large extended family and friends. He passed away at home Friday Robert was a man of few words, deep emotions and strong convictions.

He was one of the original environmentalists, though he would never have said that. He was fanatical about not wasting water. He lived out in the country for many years in an adobe house he built himself without running water inside. He would carry water from his well in a bucket to wash and do dishes. He was a patient teacher to his family He taught his nieces and nephews to make adobe bricks.. And he shared his wide knowledge freely. He loved to trade cars and knives and guns with his brothers and his friends. He was a truck driver working mainly for H P Hale Trucking. He was a financial conservative, in a manner of speaking, the lessons he learned in the Depression stayed with him. The funeral will be Monday at Anderson-Bethany funeral home at 3:00 p.m.
