July 9, 1928 - January 5, 2013

Obituary for Robert "Bob" Scribner, Sr.

Graveside services will be held for Bob Scribner, SR., 84, of Roswell, at 11 a.m., Thursday, January 10, 2013, at South Park Cemetery, with Matt Wade officiating. Bob passed away on Saturday, January 5, 2013.

Bob was born July 9, 1928 to Frank C. Scribner and Bertha Linton Scribner in Coleta, Ill. He moved to Roswell while serving in the US Air Force where he met and married his loving wife, Loveta B. Fuller Scribner on August 18, 1951. He served his country in the USAF during the Korean Conflict. He later worked and retired from PepsiCola Bottling Co. and then went on to work as an Auto Tech Instructor at ENMUR.

He was as an avid do-it-your-selfer, and jack of all trades, there wasn't anything he couldn't fix or do. His family always came first, and he was never too busy to help. He was the rock of his family, well loved and well respected and will be dearly missed by all of us.

Those left to cherish his memory are his wife of 61 years, Loveta Scribner of the home; two daughters, Pam Oswald and her husband Ken of Roswell and Janet Thompson and her husband Sid of Roswell; one sister, Mildred Nichols of Millageville, Ill.; two very well loved grandsons, Robert Scribner, III and his wife Vedrana of Roswell and Matthew Scribner of Roswell and his sister-in-law, Judy Scribner of Millageville, Ill.

He was preceded in death by his son Robert Jr.; two grandchildren, Jayme and Jason Oswald; his brother Victor Scriber and his sister Elsie Briggs.

Services are under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.
