“ *To the Steward Family, My condolence goes out to all the family and ones that knew Buster. I got to know him through Rosemarie, know him enough to laugh, joke, being silly,, shed a tear hear and there, also prayed.. The Buster I knew was a fun loving person, I am so glad I crossed path with him,, It sadden me so greatly to hear of his passing.. I knew he made the best, and most of his edurance without so much as complaning of pain, or discomfort.. I knew he wasn't feeling well when he would want to lay down, and still joked about whatever would come up... I've express my love for him that through prayers he would get better.. The last time I talked to him, he sounded faint, but we had a good conversation... Buster we will cross path again until then I shall wait.

With broken hearts we love you, As I heard you passed away.& although we loved you deeply, We could never make you stay. “ To the Stewart family: We send our love and condolences to you all. Our prayers will be lifted up for each of you. Here is a scripture to help you through your hard times:

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. 7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

John 14:1-7 (KJV)

“ My condolences and prayers are with the family and friends of Mr. Robert Stewart. I regret not being able to be there for I feel apart of this wonderful family. I do take out this time to say that I love each and everyone of you with all my heart. Ms. Stewart, thank God that we know the realities of dieing in the Lord. We will miss "Busta" on this side. We know that he is as alive today as he was when we last saw him but now in a much better place. I envy Robert for leaving us down here to deal with the troubles of this old world. We too must pass this way again and all we have to do is keep on living. Busta I will miss all those rides I had in your volkswagon when you took me under your wings as a teenager. I will see you when I get there. May the peace of God comfort your hearts during your time of bereavment and celebration. Minister Gary L Mills.

“ Stewart Family~

Although no words can really help to ease your loss, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

2 Corinthians 1:3–4 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
