

Robert Tringes

July 21, 1943 - July 8, 2012

Robert Tringes, of Roswell, entered into eternal rest on Sunday, July 8, 2012 in Roswell. He was 68 years old.

Robert Edward Tringes was born July 21, 1943 in Union Town, Pennsylvania to Ralph and Eva (Shaffer) Tringes. After being honorably discharged from the United States Army, Robert went to work as a mechanic. He loved his family very much and always worked hard to provide for them. A genuine friend, Robert would help anyone who needed it. He was a wonderful grandfather and step-father. Robert loved working on engines and could be found almost always in the garage. His talent in mechanics and easy loving demeanor will be greatly missed.

Robert is preceded in death by brothers, Ralph Tringes, Donnie Tringes, William Tringes, John Tringes, Rich Tringes, Frank Tringes, Billy Tringes and John Tringes; sisters, Milly Bachman and Phyllis Long; and brothers-in-law, Paul Everly, Leroy Tressler and Harold Long and special step-son Frank Contreras.

Those left to cherish Robert's memory is companion, Barbara Sanchez of Roswell; son, Robbie Tringes of Mansfield, OH; sisters, Virginia Sanner (Wilford) of OH, Anna Everly of PA and Linda Tressler of PA; brothers, Joe Tringes (Kathy) of PA and Ronald Tringes (Kathy) of PA; grandchildren, Joshua and Destiny Stephenson of Roswell, Reynaldo Valenzuela, Matthew McNeil, Rebecca and Theodore Contreras; numerous nieces, nephews and other grandchildren, also a good friend Richard Sanchez and numerous
