“ *I became acquainted with Roberta about 2
1/2 years ago through "Glass Class" and soon learned what unique individual she was.
I learned a lot about how talented she was working with glass and what a big heart she had. My husband has known her for years from working at the Courthouse. Roberta will be sorely missed.*

My family deeply regrets Roberta's passing. She has been a dear friend for more than 45 years. Many great times spent with both she and Jim and many of our friends from Institute days in Roswell. Thank you, Roberta, for being such a loyal friend and wonderful God-Mother to our youngest, Kim.
