Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Bobby's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

SERVICES: Graveside Services will be held at Our Lady of Belen Memorial Gardens, 101 North 10th St, Belén, NM, 87002, on Saturday, January 8, 2022, at 11:00 AM with Deacon Jerry Baca officiating.

On June 22, 1993, Roberto was born to Bronson Montoya and Antoinette Arias in Albuquerque, NM. Roberto, known as "Bobby," to his loved ones was the sweetest and most understanding soul. Out of us all, he was the most forgiving and loving; his heart was so big for his kids, family, and friends. His sense of humor and quick comeback will be so very cherished. Bobby was the one to go out of his way and sacrifice his time and effort for others needs before his own. He was an avid Steelers fan, and his smile (or smirk) was one of the best. His bear hugs are unmatched. We've lost a precious soul, and his family will greatly miss him.

SURVIVORS: Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Bobby are his children: Cisco and Aria Ortega; father, Bronson Montoya; grandparents: Bonnie Randall Arias and Joe & Berlinda Arias; brother, Jose

Arias; uncles: Rito Arias, TJ Montano and Armando Montoya; aunts: Rosemary Garcia, Monica Santiago, Jessica Arias, Aunt Sunshine; nephews: Christian Arias and Johnny Arias; nieces: Aneliz Piar, and Joselin Arias; cousins: Amanda Sanchez, Angelo Montano, Savannah Montano, Araceli Arias, Julissa Arias, and Antoinette Arias; as well as his close friends: Juan Raigoza, Corey King, Carlos Silva, Xavier Franco, and Joseph Muniz.

PRECEDED: Bobby is preceded in death by his paternal great grandparents Guile Montoya and Magdalena Montoya, paternal grandparents Roberto Montoya and Ruth. His mother Antoinette Angela Arias (2008).

The family of Bobby wishes to extend sincere thanks to Sam and Bernice Martinez, TJ Montano and Rosemary Garcia, Pedro and Virginia Raigoza.

Bobby's tribute was written in his honor by his family.
