“ I remember Ron from when he worked in maintenance here at the Kahl Building, Davenport, Iowa. He was always happy, a little smart-assy and always had a joke. He would give a warranty on his work "10 feet or 10 seconds, whichever comes first". My sympathies to his family.

“ We will never forget 10 years ago - when Ron and Sharon exchanged marriage vows... you both were so happy. Many miles have come and gone but we will always remember that special day, that special reason we were all together... may God be with you. Our deepest sympathies.n
