Ronnie's tribute was written in his honor by his family.

GRACE EASLEY speaks of the WINDING ROAD:

"There is a road that leads uphill,
Past streams and flowers fair,
Above the valley of yesterday,
And past the bridge of care.
It is a long and winding road,
Where sun and shadows blend,
Where never a footstep falters,
And every grief must end.
There is a road that leads uphill,

A million miles from pain,
Where heartache is a stranger
One never meets again.
Where golden dawn replaces night,
To mark the journey's end,
Where Jesus waits beside the gates,
To bid us enter in.”

“ Been praying for and thinking about the Vaughn family and friends. Ronnie was super sweet to me when my mother passed away a number of years ago and I just wanted to share his kindness. It was great to have a friend like him reach out during that time. God Bless, Patrick Allen and family.

“ Offering this memory in behalf of Ronnie; he was such a pleasure & privilege to coach & share a common interest in our passion for basketball at RHS. That team was so close to the mountaintop led by ronnie's deft shooting touch, what a memory from the Pit! BB aside he was one of the most pleasant, respectful that I had the honor to coach. RIP my brother/teammate 🥲
