October 6, 1929 - November 13, 2012

Funeral services will be conducted on Thursday, Nov. 15, 2012 at 2:30 pm at Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home Chapel for Ronny J. Stewart , who passed away at his home on Nov. 13, 2012. Interment will be in South Park Cemetery. Visitation will be Wednesday, Nov. 14, 2012 from 3 pm- 8pm at the funeral home.

Ronny was born on Black Thursday, October 6, 1929 in Carter, Oklahoma to Bert C. and Vestal Lorene Campbell Stewart. His family moved to the Roswell area during the depression. He was taught by his father to read before starting first grade at East Grand Plains school. He graduated from Roswell High School in 1948.

He was a man of few words whose actions alone tell the story of who he was, a man built of strength and resilience, a true example of genuine honor and integrity. He loved his family, his work, animals, nature and the helpless. He believed in the value and honor of hard work. After graduation from Roswell High School, he entered the Apprenticeship Program of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, he was journeyman electrician for 62 years. He was a master craftsman, and highly respected for his skill and workmanship by his fellow workers both electricians and other construction craftsman. He worked on many construction jobs in and around Roswell, throughout New Mexico and as far as Michigan.

When not on a job he taught his children and experimented with many different mechanical ideas and inventions, always interested in learning new things.

After his retirement, with the help of his son, he built his own home. He was a loving father and husband, worked hard for his family.

As a young boy and into his early adulthood he was a dedicated playmate and faithful companion to his two brothers, Glinnis and Royce, who were disabled by Cerebral Palsy.

He is survived by his wife Leona Stewart of the family home; his son, Douglas Stewart and his wife, Janice of Roswell; his daughter, Sheri Johnston and her husband, Chris of Albuquerque; grandchildren, Kristin Stewart and Eric Stewart of Albuquerque; Justin Bowman and his wife, Danielle of Ruidoso; Dyan Bowman of Ruidoso; Kayla and Tyler Johnston of Albuquerque; and the delight of his last five years Hudson and Hunter Bowman of Ruidoso; he is also survived by his sister La Juana Borick and her sons Steve of Houston and Brian of Dallas; and mother-in-law Ruth Whitt of Roswell.

Pallbearers are Doug Stewart , Eric Stewart, Justin Bowman, Chris Johnston, Mark Lewis and Lorenzo Najar. Honorary pallbearers Alden Forbau, Charles Stearns and his IBEW 611 brothers and sisters.

He was preceded in death by his two brothers, Glinnis Stewart and Royce Stewart, by his father Bert Stewart; his mother, Lorene Campbell Stewart, father-in-law Wiley Whitt and brother-in law, Matt.

“ Getting to know Mr. Stewart has been a great journey for me. I don't think he trusted me to care for him in the beginning, but we developed a special relationship. Everytime he came in, left me with a smile for the rest of the day. He was truly a special person and I will miss him. Sleep with the angels and I hope my parents get to meet you.
