

Roy Lee Landreth

May 7, 1944 - June 5, 2016

Theologian and Philosopher, Roy Lee Landreth, 72, of Roswell, NM, passed away on June 5, 2016. He was born in Cheyenne, WY, to Glenn and Mildred Murphy Landreth.

With over 7 years of college education, Roy was a teacher and consultant for 50+ years. His fields of expertise were: the Bible, science, C.S. Lewis, cults and deprogramming, comparative religions and a variety of other topics. Roy had many interests including, but certainly not limited to: particle physics, ancient history and sociology. He was a news junkie, had a crazy sense of humor and he really loved to talk to anyone about any topic.

Roy married Jane Gilbreth on February 20, 1982, in Tucson, AZ. Together they celebrated 34 years of marriage. Dr. Jane Gilbreth practices medicine in Roswell, NM.

Roy is preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Alice and her husband, and a brother, Paul and his wife.

Those surviving to cherish Roy's memory are his wife, Jane Gilbreth Landreth of Roswell, NM, and son, Brian Landreth and his wife, China of Albuquerque, NM.

Join the family for a Memorial Service on Thursday, June 9, 2016, 10:00 AM, at the Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel. Pastor Gerry Chavez and Pastor Jim Gilbreth will officiate.

Interment of the Urn will occur at South Lawn Cemetery in Tucson, AZ, at a later date.

“ The world is somewhat darker now and the heavens are welcoming one of the brightest, warmest, kindest men , I have had the pleasure of knowing and caring for , I have missed caring for and will miss him. I think of him and the wonderful family of his every day with love and fondness in my heart. I know he was welcomed home with a joyous celebration. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy, Denise McDowell and Family
