Obituary for Ruth Coppock

Graveside services for Ruth Coppock, 88, of Roswell will be held at 10 am Tuesday, April 3, 2007, at South Park Cemetery with Rev. Tracy Spencer-Brown, Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church officiating. Ruth passed away Saturday, March 31, 2007, at Casa Maria Health Care Center.

Ruth was born on June 7, 1918 to Lola and Earl Orr in Hill County, Texas. She was a graduate of Itasca High School in 1936 and Denton State Teachers College (now North Texas State College) in 1939. She and Donald Coppock were married Feb. 4, 1949 in Carlsbad, NM; he survives her at the family home. Ruth taught school for thirty-five years, first in Luling, Texas, then Midland, TX, then to Carlsbad, (where she met Donald) and then for twenty-five years here in Roswell. She was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

In addition to her husband, Donald, Ruth is survived by a brother, Bill Orr and his wife, Ann, of Pasadena, TX; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, Lola and Earl Orr, brother, Kenneth Orr, and a sister, Mary Blalock.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Westminster Presbyterian Church's Building Fund 2801 W. 4th Roswell, NM 88201.

“ *Don,
Sorry to hear of Ruth's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. This can be a very lonely time. Take care of yourself. My dad, Lloyd is in Koester Pavillion, a nursing facility. Mother and I go to see him each day. He went to the hospital with pneumonia in middle of March, and has not been good since. Nancy* “ *Mrs. coppock was my second grade teacher. I continued to see her for many years after leaving Valley View Elementary School, but regrettably, I have not seen her in along time.

She was one of my favorites and I will always have fond memories of our friendship. She was a wonderful person and will be missed. My thoughts are with the family, David*
