“ I have a lifetime of memories with you that I will cherish.
I wouldn't even know where to begin.
You were so much more than my older sister ,you were someone I could always talk to, you were my friend.
I miss you so much Salli, god this is so hard.
As I sit here witting this my tears just flow.
My heart is broken , the only thing that eases my pain is knowing your with Mom and Dad and knowing your fight,your pain is over.
You were so brave, I admired the strong woman you were.
You got that from Mom.
You were the " good one" out of us girls, the good daughter never ever gave Mom and Dad one day of stress, I honestly can't remember you ever getting in trouble growing up like most normal teenagers do.
I can remember the rest of us you know getting grounded for doing something wrong, or get caught skipping school, coming home late....
But not you ,You were Mom and Dad's first ,they loved you so much
, and we're always so proud of you.
You were special, you were that bright sparkle that could light up the darkest times.
I'm so grateful that were shared so many years as sisters and all though getting through losing you is so very hard I thank God everyday for putting you in my life.
You touched so many lives and you will be missed by so many.
Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel .
I will always and forever miss you.
I love you Sis.

“ If there was something I could do to have that last talk and laugh like we did I would do it unselfishly. Even though we were apart from each other, once we say each other we started when we ended our last visit, You were such a breath of fresh air even your laugh still remains in my head. I will never forget our visits and conversations, and especially the big laughs we had together. You gained your wings and flying high no more pain no more sadness, your free now, watch over all of us. Love you cousin, you know what we had.

“ Raymon, Michelle and Tommy, I am so sorry for your loss. Salli was such a wonderful person. While working at WalMart I always called her Cinderella and she called me “Stepmother”. I loved her dearly, She touched my life in so many ways. Her laugh was infectious and echoed through the halls. Prayers to you and your family.
