

Salyna Dickman Nallie

May 18, 1949 - January 1, 2010

Graveside services for Salyna Christine Dickman Nallie, 60, of Roswell, will be held at 10 am Wednesday, January 6, 2010 at South Park Cemetery with Pastor Ben A. Talley officiating.

Salyna Christine Dickman Nallie, born May 8, 1949, went home to be with the Lord on January 1, 2010. She passed away in the comfort of her home surrounded by her loving family.

Christine, known lovingly by her family as "Aunt Chris" loved her family with all her heart and would give everything she had for them. She loved children and though she was never able to have any of her own, she helped raise many children of family and friends. She had a very big loving heart and always had room in her home and heart for the children. She never failed to tell you she loved you whenever she would see you or talk to you on the phone.

Christine is survived by her sister, Pamela Cole, and her brothers, Paul M. "Buddy" Dickman, Jr. (Darlene), of Roswell and Aaron R. Dickman of Post, Texas. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, her uncle Vernie R. Boggs (Sue) and numerous cousins. She is also survived by her sweet little dog, Candie, whom she also loved very much. Christine was preceded in death by her parents, Paul M. Dickman and Norma Emaline Dickman, whom she loved and missed very much; her grandparents, George R. Boggs and Salyna B. Boggs and Grandpa Dickman, and several aunts and uncles. We know they all welcomed her into Heaven with open arms.

Christine loved to sing and play the piano, and in her younger days she sang locally under the name of Christy Hart. She couldn't read a note of music, but once she heard a song she could sing it and play it on the piano. She spent several years in Alaska, Beaumont, Texas and Branson, Missouri before returning to Roswell.

Christine will be dearly missed by all her family and friends.

Please share your thoughts and memories with the family in the online register book at www.andersonbethany.com Services are under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.
