“ My Aunt Sandy.. My mothers best friend.. My second mother.. She was the strongest, most encouraging, loving support I may have ever known. She never allowed there to be a moment in my life that I didn't feel her love and concern. She unselfishly provided me with the knowledge that she was always there to tell me she loved me and how good I was doing in my life.. You will be so very missed.. Thank you for making me so important in your life... Jeannette Leer Herbold

“ Duane and I have fond memories of both your Mom and Dad. Sandy was such a comfort when we lost our son Steve. We remember well a birthday party for your dad that we attended.

Sandy was always moving, spreading sunshine and cheer wherever she went.

We are sorry for your loss.

“ I was born on (Cousin) Sandy's 11th birthday (June 4). She told me often that I was "the best birthday gift she ever received." I would call her my "birthday twin." She was so very special to me and I will miss her terribly!
