“ The future is something I cannot share with my Nicole , but I am able to recount all the joy of the past that we had . From the very day I gave brith to her so many memories. The best being just a little over a week before her death , she called me out of the blue to tell me " I just called Mom to hear your voice and to tell you that I love you Mom." I love you Nicole.Your Mother Roxy-ann.

“ Nicole was one of the greatest people I know. She was a loving Aunt to all of her neices and nephews, including me. Also from what i have seen she was a loving sister and daughter. Even though we will all miss her, she truly is in a better place and will always have the care she deserves. We love you Nicole and hope you love the place you are at now.
