On January 2, 1983, Santiago was born to his father, Eliseo Zavala Rodriguez and mother, Maria Guadalupe Zavala in Roswell, New Mexico.

Prior to his passing, Santiago worked at Wakefield Oil for more than twenty years, his kind personality led him to meet a lot of his friends there. When he wasn't working, he enjoyed staying home and watching boxing, baseball, and soccer. His favorite soccer team was Las Chivas. He played soccer for Mesa Middle School and Roswell High School. On the weekends, Santiago liked to do cookouts with his family and liked going to the casino. He loved to visit family in Guanajuato, Mexico, and come back home and tell his parents and siblings about his trips. Santiago was the most selfless person we knew, he always put others before himself without expecting anything in return. These last couple of years were hard for him but he would still help anyone he could with a smile on his face.

Santiago will be missed by his family and friends.

“ I have know Santiago from when he first started working at Wakefield Oil. He was always such a pleasant and friendly person. I do not remember him ever being in a bad mood. We would talk and laugh multiple times each week. I will miss seeing him and enjoying our laughs together. “ I met Santiago through his work at Wakefield Oil when I was commuting from Roswell to El Paso to see my husband. When he found out I was going to be driving long distances, he would make it a point to check the oil, tire pressure, water, etc. He was always so incredibly nice! I believe he had a beautiful soul. I am so sorry for your loss and will keep you and your family in my prayers.
