

Sarah O'Conner-Green

February 10, 2015

Sarah O'Connor-Green, 27, of Sandy, Utah, died in a car accident on Interstate 15 near Bountiful, Utah early on February 10, 2015.

O'Conner-Green is survived by her husband Patrick and four children, Drew Keelin, 11; Keri Green, 7; and Michelle and Marilena Green, 3; parents Tonya and Richard O'Connor of Dillingham, Alaska; and birth father Darrell Pugin of Spencerville, Ohio. Also surviving Sarah are brothers and sisters, Jessica Ayers, Caitlain O'Connor, Sharadon O'Connor, Abby Pugin, Ally Pugin, Aubrey Pugin, Caleb Pugin, Jared Taber, Christian Brenneman, and Darrell Lupara; as well as numerous grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Born in Fort Worth, Texas, Sarah spent most of her childhood in Dillingham, Alaska. Her summers were spent commercial salmon fishing at Ekuk Beach with her family. She was a devoted and dedicated mother, a loving wife, and a wonderful daughter. Remembered as a warm and caring spirit who was full of energy, Sarah enjoyed raising her children and volunteering her time to help others. O'Connor-Green was baptized into the Catholic faith at birth and baptized in the Mormon faith as an adult.

A memorial service will be held Thursday, February 19, 2015, at 2:30 PM in the Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home Chapel in Roswell, New Mexico. A Celebration of Life will be held in Dillingham later in February.

Tribute Wall

“ Sarah O'Conner-Green

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ I only knew Sarah closely during my last year at DHS as a student; she was always happy and completely nonjudgmental. Minus MSN Messenger and Myspace back then, we lost touch while I attended UAF but her positive attitude was certainly contagious.

Ricky - February 18, 2015 at 09:14 PM