Saul Alvidrez (El Guero) was born on September 2nd to Hortencia+ and Jesus Alvidrez in La Paz, Chihuahua Mexico. When he was only a boy he came to live in the United States along with his uncles Elias+ and Hidelio Loya. He was a hard worker even at a young age. He would help train race horses in his adolescence years and he later was employed as a sew chef at a Chinese restaurant. He graduated from Roswell High School in 1988. A few years later he married and started his family. Saul carried his family starting off with Dairy work and managed to save money for his first semi truck. With much hard work he went on to structuralize his own trucking business (S. Alvidrez Truck'n). Saul dedicated his life to his family. In his spare time he would work on his trucks with his brothers Oscar, Jesus, and Pedro+, tended to his animals, and loved playing "Pot". His favorite thing to say when playing was "Nunca juegas con miedo, o si no, nunca vas a ganar". Saul was a very kind man always trying to help anyone whom asked for his assistance, whether it were for a simple change of a tire to a full on construction of a house. His memory would be eternally treasured and cherished by his surviving wife Irma Alvidrez, his daughter Amy Noely Alvidrez, spouse Adolfo Soto, grandchildren Adolfo Adriel Soto and Arielle Elise Soto, daughter Janette Alvidrez, partner Daniel Dillard, his son Saul Omar Alvidrez Jr partner Samantha DeRosier. His Father Jesus Alvidrez his Brothers Oscar Alvidrez spouse Evodia , Jesus Alfonso Alvidrez spouse Mirna. His honorary children Erika Alvidrez Carrizales, Oscar Edel Alvidrez Jr, Raul Alvidrez. Saul is preceded in death by mother Hortencia Alvidrez, brother Pedro Loya, father-in-law Jose Carlos. The family of Saul wishes to extend sincere thanks to everyone whom kept Saul in their thoughts and prayers while admitted in the hospital.
