Shane Alan Cisneros McMath was born on May 4, 1987, in Roswell, New Mexico, to Celestino Cisneros and Patricia McMath. Shane was an entrepreneur and business owner of Shane's Maintenance and Repair. He was a proud father and grandfather who loved his family very much. Shane loved to spend time with his wife and family, whether it was at his favorite fishing spot, dancing, listening to music, or four-wheeling. Known for his positive attitude, his ability to make people laugh, and his love for the Dallas Cowboys. Shane was a great advice-giver and took pride in people coming to him for his opinion. He helped so many people in many ways. He had a passion for writing letters to his wife, Nakita, and she will forever treasure many of his words written in love. He will be truly missed by his friends and family.

Left to cherish and treasure their memories of Shane are his wife, Nakita Pena McMath; his children, Annavette, Revae, Christopher, Renezamay, Autumn, Claudia, Clarissa, and Shane; grandchildren, Ezkiel and a baby boy on the way, Shane Lucas; siblings, Celestino, Amanda, Ashley, Michael, David, and Elias; parents, Celestino Cisneros and Patricia McMath; grandparents, Fletcher and Johnnie Sidbury; uncles, Danny Mairot and Alan Patterson; and aunts, Denise Orquiz and Quada Farr; close friends, Christopher Sifuentes, Silvester Torres, and JJ Hernandez; and numerous friends and family members that loved him.

Patricia, kids and family I send my most heartfelt condolences to you. You are in my thoughts and prayers; may God comfort you during this very difficult time. Living across the street from you for so many years I got to know Shane, he was always very respectful to me. I was happy when I saw him at church. My heart hurts for you.
