“ John, my sincere condolences for the loss of your lovely wife. Life will be not be quite the same without her. She was quite an inspiration for me, what a warrior. Seeing her at Mission Arch and again at Dr. Ramage's office I knew it was meant for our paths to cross.I know I'll see her in heaven but until then she will be greatly missed. You are in my prayers. God bless, Kim Mathews,RN

“ i wish to take this time to express my sincere thanks to my mom's friends at her church. she was a woman with a very strong belief. i know in my heart that her spirit has gone on to be with the Lord,where she will no longer be in pain,or be sick. she has been restored fully with her Father in Heaven.
Thank you Anderson-Bethany for the care and compassion you have shown to our family.

“ To John and family, im very sorry to hear that sharon has passed away. But i KNOW with everything in my heart she went with God. She was a very nice person and i loved talking with her. I wish i could of done it alot more lately though. Im really going to miss her. I thank her and John for everything they ever done for me and my mom. Sharon and her singing voice will always be missed by me. She had so much wisdom and loved to be involved with eveything. God Bless you All and You all are in my prayers and thoughts.
