“ I am so sorry for the lose of Shelly. She was a good woman and friend to all. She helped out people that were in need. I remember going to church every Sunday and Wednesday and seeing her smileing face and talknig to everyone that knew her. I remember her calling me Jifenner everytime she saw me and I alawys giggled at that when she called me that. Shelly was full of life and loved her kids and her family ans well as the family that she had at the church. My regards go towards the family and friends. Shelly was a great woman and a great friend. Would like to hear from yall and see how yall are donig. Jennifer

“ To the family of Shelly, May God bless you in the home going of Mrs. Shelly. She was a great Christian who loved helping others. We will miss her here but God had a more need for her. May you continue to keep your trust in the Lord.

“ Our girl is singing with the angels in heaven! She has been an inspiration to Gene and myself. We will certainly miss her uplifting smile and sayings. We shared many good times and sad times at the Out Reach and with Disaster Relief. What a blessing Shelly has been in our life!
