Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room

why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - But let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
and each must go alone,
it's all a part of the Master's plan
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
go to the friends we know,
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - But Let Me Go...

“ Shirley was a marvelous friend and Eastern Star sister. We also shared the kinship of nursing. A friend of mine shared their times at Kymera together until Shirley decided to stay at home. Her time with Jim was important and she was wanting to be at home. I will always remember her with a smile. Jena Amaral
