“ Dearest Cousins, It is with mixed emotions that I read the obituary of Aunt Shirley. On the one hand, I am saddened to hear of her passing. On the other, I read the names of you all and it brings a flood of fond memories from my youth.

I pray that you are comforted in her passing. The scripture in Corinthians might bring some solace:

“O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? ... But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:55 - 57)

While I do not know the circumstances of her passing I do hope that you will be comforted to know, as I know, that she is in a better place, free of pain, fatigue, and troubles; where she may rest awaiting the resurrection.

Perhaps some day we will meet during happier times. I look forward to that day.

Respectfully,

Tim Baxter and Family Nicholasville, Kentucky

“ Shirley Elane Baxter Jones was my grandma. We called her "nana". She has always had a big heart. If i had nowhere to stay she'd take me in her home and care for me. My grandpa Harold H. Jones loved her very much. He took very good care of her when she was sick. Also my mom Lana D. Baxter took VERY VERY good care of her when she was ill. She was one of the best unselfish person i've ever met as was Harold H. Jones (Papa) My Nana Loved roses. -Juliette Baxter-
