

Shirley McAllister

October 2, 1935 - October 22, 2015

Shirley McAllister passed away on October 22, 2015. She was born on October 2, 1935, to Ray and Maud McVay, in Marietta, OH.

The family later moved to Pampa, TX, where Shirley graduated from Pampa High School. After graduation, she moved to Roswell and went to work for the Roswell State Bank. Shirley worked in the banking business for many years with several different banks in Roswell and an investment firm in California. Shirley was an artist, who gave away many of her paintings. She was an accomplished dressmaker, never needing a pattern, just a sketch.

Preceding Shirley in death were her parents, Ray and Maud McVay and cousin, Irma Moss, all of Roswell.

Those left to carry on her legacy are her second cousins: Bill Moss and wife Jan and Dorinne Lykins, all of Roswell; and Michele Walton and husband Randy, of Hobbs.

No services are scheduled per Shirley's request.

The family requests, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the charity of your choice.
