“ I will never forget steve aka salsa. He always had a smile for me and the most important thing about Steve is the wonderful care and love he bestowed upon my sister, his wife Shirley. He was a funny man with a heart of pure gold and now he is sharing his goodness with our mom, dad, and brother, I loved him very much and am so sad for us. He is in such a wonderful place now and we must go on until we too can be there and meet again. All my deepest sympathies go to all the ones who loved him as I did and especially my sister Shirley. I love you Sue Vansickle & Richard Mabe
