“ *To my nephew and Union brother, who, as everyone has written about; you were/are kind and considerate to everyone that knew you. We kept in touch regularly via email (last one on July 27th) and I will surely miss you, those funny jokes, and the videos; especially in keeping me informed of my hometown; Roswell. I know that you are with your gandparents right now, comforting you and that you can hear us; know that we love you and are missed dearly. I wished I could have been around you, your brothers and sister growing up, for I felt great respect from all of you each time I visited Roswell; it's a great feeling to be called Tio/Uncle. Maria, que dios este con usted y su familia y que dios dar salud a su hijo.

“ My condolences to his family. I wanted to share my experiences with the family but it was to hard. So i will do it here. I went to school with Steve at RHS. At the time I didnt know we were cousins. I didnt find out till later on when I was working for the City with Marty that we were related. Steve was always good to me. Even when I was union president for the city workers, he asked for help and I did my best to help him and the other workers. He did like to argue points and I respected him for that. I could always count on him being honest with me. When I got a job last year with the state i ran into him, the first week of work. He always had a greeting for me. We would sit around and talk about the city. I would also run into him at auctions. We made a deal that we would not bid against each other. He sure got a kick at those auctions. We had alot of fun there. To his immediate family, keep your head up. We will see him again.

“ There are no words to express the deep sorrow I feel for the entire Vigil Family. I've known Stevie my entire life and am in shock over this tragedy that has occurred. It seems like yesterday when we would be at the cabin and me and Eugene would be getting into some kind of trouble together joking and messing around the sticks and Stevie would chase us around and just be messing around with us too. I will always cherish those times in my heart. I am lucky to have known a man like Stevie. He would do anything for anybody he loved and that was alot of people. I know this is a very tough time, but I hope in time that your hearts will heal. I love you guys. Respectfully, Larry Anaya
