“ Messages to Home” Tears we cry, for we miss the one we love. All the time in this world just doesn't seem like time enough, you were always there with a smile to share, being a shoulder to lean on when nobody cared. I am thinking about the happy times, to get me through the bad. I am so grateful for all the memories we had. I can still hear your loud music, the dribble of the ball and feel the unconditional love that you shared with us all. God has brought yet another child home. You're in the hearts of many so we'll never be alone. This is no goodbye, it's just a see you later or so long. I'll see you when I get called back to the home which I belong.

“ I give my condolences to Corina, Mike, Nate, Cesar, Ainsley, Jonathan, also to all close relatives and friends. Necha was a very good friend to me and my kids. I am so grateful to have met her and all of yall. My love for her and my love for yall grew strong in those years and it remains strong. We will always and forever carry Necha and the wonderful memories that we shared in our hearts. "God gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. (Isaiah 40:29-31) Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." (2corinthians 4 :16-18) I believe god is trying to tell us that the struggles we face in life are to make us stronger not to break us cause in the end all our pain and suffering will pay off with eternal life inside Gods gates. Just remember Gods challenge for us and be strong.

“ Memories of Taneshia make me smile. She was always a part of the team. It seems like only yesterday our girls were playing Yucca basketball, celebrating wins, and quickly getting over those not-so-many defeats. I'm so sorry for your loss. The glow of Taneshia's face will be sorely missed.

“ Corina, our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time..Words cannot begin to express the sadness we feel at the loss of your beautiful daughter..It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles. We pray God gives you strength and peace in the following days to come...remember that we love and care about you...all our love, Anit and Davey Salas

“ Fernandez-Huitron Family: Please accept our sincerest condolences on the loss of Taneshia. We are so sad for your loss. We feel like we lost one of our own kids. We have many great memories of our kids playing together and of all those kids running around all summer day and night on our block. All that noise was music to our ears. We are praying for you and for peace and rest for your family. Sincerely. Mag & Viola Martinez
