“ You were a childhood friend and neighbor. We lost contact after your family moved away from the Big Apple neighbor hood we grew up in. We never forgot you or your family. My condolences to the family.

“ My mom was the best I'm going to be lost with out her all she ever wanted is her grandkids to call her and tell her they loved her she would've gave you her shirt off her back. If you needed it she was kind to everyone. She loved her kids and her grandkids great grandkids so very much. My heart is shattered in millions of pieces still can't believe this is happening my mom it was my rock. It would be very messed mama or I'd say old lady lie. hi tell all our family I love and miss them as well. I know you're up there holding Ella K. We love you, mom we will never be forgotten. Love ur baby girl. ❤️
