AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

“ Sweet Tena, this breaks my heart baby girl. I miss the days when I called you my little sister and we would stay up all night watching movies, go to the gym, try every goofy diet we could find, tanning, your slumber parties at our house, you getting ready for homecoming with your friends, helping you practice for cheer tryouts, picking you up from games and practice, going to your banquets, you telling me about your day in the kitchen while I cooked dinner and me wondering if you were ever going to take a breath.... you would come home so excited and say 100 words in no time. I remember you and Steven playing outside and you either riding your bike or on your roller blades, you playing cards with Mom and Dad at the kitchen table, the day you took the kids for a ride in my car and backed into the fence at the horse Barns, you braiding Ali's hair and playing with the kids. Tena you had a beautiful heart and I'm so thankful for these memories, I'm thankful mom and dad took you in, I'm thankful that you lived with Tommy and I, I'm thankful that you were part of my family, I'm thankful that God shared you with us and that you blessed so many people with your kindness and positive attitude. You never gave up or took no for an answer. You found a way no matter what. Not many people probably know this but you were number seven in your class at RHS and in honor society, you loved to dance and entertain people, you studied hard in school, grades were very important to you. Not only did you make the Roswell high Varsity cheer team but you decided you wanted to go to Goddard and you made the team there as well. Life wasn't always easy for you and you had more challenges in your young life than most of us will have in a lifetime, but you never talked about the bad it was like the bad never existed, you only remembered the good and the good in people. Thank you Tena for everything you did for my family and I. I wish time wouldn't have passed so fast and that we wouldn't have grown apart. I hope you know even though we didn't talk over the last years you were always loved and had a special place in my heart. Thank you for taking such good care of Mom in her last years. You were one million Tena. May you Rest In Peace sweet girl. I love you little sis.
