“ When I walked in Cielo Grande I always came by Wizzie's house on my way home. I am sad to know she isn't there anymore but in my heart she will always be there, a special lovely person, at home with the sky and the land, with her smile, her pretty dress and lovely beads. Her cheerful radiance: impossible not to love her.

“ Wizzie had a very special place in my heart. I was introduced in June 1995 when AM and I went to Nita's house to meet his family. Even though they were cousins the Cain children thought of AM Womack as a brother.

There are many occasions when we would visit 'the gang' after we left Roswell. One of the main subjects between AM and Wizard was their love for eagles.

Today they are walking the streets of gold with our loving Heavenly Father. I am not able to attend the memorial service but thinking about each of you today.

Lots of love and prayers for each of you. (I have some pictures in a box I will try to locate and mail to you. Many precious memories). ❤️
