“ We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our Family chain is broke, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the Chain will link again We watched him suffer, day by day; It caused us bitter grief; To see him slowly pine away; And could not give relief. His weary hours and days of pain; His troubled nights are past; And in our aching hearts we know; He has found sweet rest at last. Tis sweet to know we will meet again; Where parting is no more. God knows how much we miss him; He counts the tears we shed; And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps; he is not dead." Some day, some time, my years shall see; The face we loved so well. Some day, some time, his hand we'll clasp; And never say farewell. The pearly gates were opened; A gentle voice said "Come," And with farewells unspoken; He gently entered home His weary hours and days of pain; His troubled nights are past; And in our aching hearts we know; He has found sweet rest at last.
