“ Tracy was my cousin and I knew him my entire life. He was talented when he was a kid playing football as well as guitar. He had a few rough spots in life as many of us do, but he always had a good heart. One thing that was a without doubt was how much he loved his dog. Anytime he talked about or was with his dog he was smiling. Wherever Tracy is now I hope he has a dog in his lap. RIP Tracy

“ Tracy was my younger cousin. I remember him as an adorable little boy. Tracey loved music and went to school later in life to learn how to produce music. Tracy was a proud parent of a corgi puppy. Tracy loved his pup. Tracy lived a simple life. I struggle to describe Tracy. One thing I can say is he was family

Tracy was our neighbor and used to pass figs from their tree over the back fence to the kids.
