Pursuing a passion for softball, Ty moved to Springdale, Arkansas to attend Ecclesia College. She left her heart and soul on the field every time she stepped up to the plate. Ty was the best aunt to some very special kiddos: Alec, Adalyna, McKaylee, Bentley, and Logan. Her heart belonged to her fur babies: Magic and Mamba. She prided herself in being the best dog mom in the world.

She is preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Marilyn Wynn; maternal grandfather, Robert Conrad; paternal grandmother, Wynon Miller; paternal grandfathers: Harold Armstrong and Leon Miller; and uncles: Wayne Armstrong, and Robert Conrad Jr.

“ The last time I saw Ty, as soon as I walked in she yelled “Mom!” Then ran over, gave me a big hug, and said, “Can you braid my hair” and we proceeded to chat and laugh as I did her hair in two French braids. (This was a conman occurrence. Lol) Feels like yesterday, Her smile, her bright eyes, her positive energy, her love for Magic and Mamba, her love for her family and friends, her selflessness, made her one of a kind.

We love and miss you so very much, Ty. Thank you for loving me and adopting me. Thank you for so many wonderful memories. I’m so very glad you went back home to be with your real mom and your family before this happened! I’m so, so sorry and I love you so much!!!

“ The loss of Tyler is a devastating heartbreak. I can't help but picture Tyler as the incredibly enthusiastic, energetic, hardworking little softball player I had the pleasure of coaching so many years ago. She was in love with softball and she always gave one hundred percent of herself to the game. She was a coach's dream. She had an effervescent, happy energy and was truly a joy to be around. She grew into a radiant young woman who was just as beautiful inside as out. I am profoundly saddened by her loss and my heart aches for her family and friends. My deepest sympathy for Marty, Kayla, Trenton, Amber and all of Tyler's loved ones.

“ Although I did not know her personally, she waited on our party recently and she was a beautiful soul. She was happy, personable and seemed to be a shining light to those she waited on. So very sorry for your loss. May God comfort you at this time.

“ Tyler is the prettiest person I have ever known. She was as pretty on the inside as she was on the outside. I never saw her that she didn't have a smile on her face. She lit up any room she entered. She never met a stranger and to know her was to love her. I will never forget you young lady. I love you for infinity.
