I can only imagine
What it will be like...
When I walk, by your side.
I can only imagine
What my eyes will see
When Your face is before me
I can only imagine...
Surrounded by your Glory,
What will my heart feel?
Will I dance with you, Jesus?
Or in awe of you be still?
Will I stand in Your presence?
Or to my knees will I fall?
Will I sing "Hallelujah?"
Will I be able to speak at all?

I can only imagine!~

I can only imagine.

I can only imagine,

When that day comes.

And I find myself, standing in the Son.

I can only imagine, when all I will do

Is forever, forever worship You...

I can only imagine.

“ Warmest thoughts are with you lyla and Anita and all your family. Losing someone you love is like losing a part of yourself, You miss them and miss the part that you were with them. Nothing can replace that, I am hoping that you will one day find comfort in remembering all the love and laughter that you shared together. May you find peace in your hearts!

“ The last thing Ronnie did (for my family) was to send a birthday card to Jake. She ALWAYS made sure she remembered my boys birthdays and this year she was out of town so she sent the card ❤️ In the card was a picture of Ryder who she loved so very much, she made sure no matter what was going on in her life that she showed her family and friends her support and love and that is what I will always remember about my sweet friend ❤️ We will love and miss you forever until we see you again! “ Veronica (Ronnie) and my daughter Renae were like sisters, we spent many good times together when I would be in Texas visiting. She was such fun to be around, and always there for Renae and her boys who are devastated by her loss. You can be proud of the woman she was. May you fly high with the angels Ronnie, we love you.
